PRESIDENTS REPORT.

At the last meeting which was our first meeting for 2019 the club had its midterm review and report as to the progress of its operations to achieve goals and objectives for the Rotary year. Directors and members presented achievements and what is to be undertaken over the next six months. Treasurer Greg will be presenting his midterm report on the 7th February regarding club finances.

The club also welcomed two Rotarian guests Mike and Leonie Kiely from the Rotary Club of Kirriemuir, Scotland, who will attending Rotary Cricket next week, along with our members Tony Plant and Glenn Madden in Melbourne. Good luck and best wishes to all cricketers.

THIS WEEK THERE IS NO MEETING DUE TO THE AUSTRALIA DAY BBQ AT LAKE WEEROONA ON SATURDAY.

January is proving to be incredibly hot, keep cool everyone. See you at the Australia Day BBQ.
Happy Australia Day.

Yours in Rotary

Rod Spitty.

Australia Day is an established and significant day in the national calendar with 4 in 5 Australians seeing it as 'more than a day off' and over 16,000 people choosing it to become new citizens each year.
