PRESIDENTS REPORT.

. At our last meeting the club had a vocational visit to the Soldiers War Museum in Pall Mall. Some 30 members, partners and friends attended the tour of inspection which proved extremely informative and appreciated by all who attended. Thanks to the tour guides Cliff, Luke and Pam for their presentations. Following this visit the club has made a $500 donation to assist with developmental and operational works at the museum. Afterwards we had fellowship and a meal at Schnitz restaurant opposite the museum.

This weekend is very busy with 14 members and partners attending the Multi District Conference in Melbourne and members Clive, Jennie, Paul and Rae making up a team representing the club at Rotary Club of Bendigo's charity golf event.

This meeting we will have exchange student Luisa's presentation and a report on the Multi District Conference. Representatives from the Swap Meet Committee will also be making a financial presentation to the club.

On the 28th February it will be a social night where we will be celebrating with partners and friends Ken Brigg's 90th Birthday.

Tickets are also available for the Enchanted Flute Concert and positive behaviour dinner - Bendigo and District Junior Football League fundraiser.

See you all back at the Foundry on 21st February - Don't forget apologies to me by 12 midday please.

Yours in Rotary
Rod Spitty

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
