Acting President's Report.

A small but happy group gathered at the Foundry for our last formal meeting of the year. Our regular hostess Siobhan was farewelled and new hostess Ashlee welcomed. Members were reminded to return raffle tickets and money in advance of the draw next Thursday evening. Our raffle has received a boost with contributions from Jacinta Allen and the Bendigo Club.

Congratulations to Ian, Max, Kylee, Garry, Tony and Rod for their organisation of the raffle and to all members for their efforts in selling the tickets. *** Any members who are free next Wednesday may like to assist in preparing the raffle book ticket stubs for the draw on Thursday. The plan is to meet at Max and Ian's Signery in Holdsworth Rd about 10.00 am to pull apart the ticket stubs.

In place of a Guest Speaker, Tony gave us a good overview of the Bendigo Junior Football and Netball sponsorship project which will take commence in March next year.

Condolences

Our thoughts are with Trevor Hawking following the sad loss of his mother. The Club wishes to convey its deepest sympathy to Trevor and all of the Hawking family.

Glenn Madden
Acting President

See Above Many thanks to all the raffle ticket sellers for the last great effort .

Guest speaker Tony and the sign draft for the Junior Football/ Netball sponsorship for 2019. .

Thanks also for all the BBQ EFFORTS.

Happy travels Tom and see you in January 2019 from all at Table 61, Sports Bar and the Rotary Club. !

CAMP GETAWAY WORKING BEES CONTINUE Work on installation of the fire fighting tank .

As you all can see below from the foundations work it's a large tank approx 75,000 or so .The Camp is looking great of late especially the gardens thanks to the attention of the caretakers.
