PRESIDENT'S REPORT

A very enjoyable evening was spent Thursday with members being reminded of the many good things the Club is involved in as well as learning about the life of one of our more recent members. It was very interesting to hear from Phil Lethbridge and how he grew up in Corowa and was sent off to boarding school in Melbourne at the age of eight following his mother's death. Phil spent the next ten years at boarding school and developed into a very capable and independent young man. He later went on the university in Canberra studying Law. Once qualified Phil joined his father and grandfather in the family law firm back in Corowa. Due to family reasons Phil and Jenny have relocated to Bendigo and our Rotary Club is all the better for it. Thanks, Phil, for a great talk.

Anne Peace gave us a reminder of the importance of the Rotary Foundation and how members can contribute to it via the Centurion Program and the through the tax-deductible Australian Rotary Foundation Trust.

Missing memory stick: Our resident photographer Clive misplaced his memory stick with lots of club photos on it at the meeting on Thursday. It is attached to a blue lanyard. Please return to Clive if found.

Lucky Lotto winners were Mathew and Cora (a late entrant who purchased one of the two remaining numbers). Reminder: if you haven't paid your Lucky Lotto please do so asap.

We are back at the Foundry this coming Thursday 29th of August for another interesting meeting, this time with Guest Speaker Jenny Delaney talking on "getting the best out of your life". I look forward to catching up with everyone then.
