PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Our annual AFL footy themed night was held on Thursday night with a good turn up of appropriately dressed members and guests. Greg Penno from the Strathdale RC gave the meeting a reminder of the reason we were raising funds on the night and that is for the MEC (Meningoencephalocoele) Project. Members participated in footy trivia, famous footy faces, footy quotes and handball. A highlight was a perfect 10 score by Ken Briggs with his brilliant handballing skills. The night concluded with the drawing of the raffle. Thank you to Tony Plant and Anne Peace for providing the raffle prizes and to all of the members who entered into the theme of the night.

A firewood fundraiser has been initiated by Tony with a quantity of dry wood having been cut into lengths and ready to be turned into usable firewood for next Winter. A working bee is to be arranged to block up the wood and split the blocks.

No Lucky Lotto draw was held on the night which means we will have two draws next Thursday.

Next Thursday night we are meeting at the Colonial Motel in High St, Golden Square. There is plenty of parking available if you drive in and park inside the motel grounds. I look forward to seeing everyone fit and well on Thursday evening.

CLUB MEETING SEPTEMBER 12, 2019.

This meeting will be held at the Colonial Motor Inn in High Street Golden Square.

Meeting times and meal price will be the same as usual. The speaker will be Tara Flinn who has started The Macapella Choir. There is an attachment with this Signpost that will explain what Tara is all about.

At our meeting Tara will give a brief outline of her hopes and aspirations to further develop her project but will also do a short interactive session with all of us present similar to what she would do with her regular participants. I would also encourage you to consider anyone you are in contact with who might find this an interesting experience. Would also be a good meeting to bring partners along as well. We will collect some names of those attending at the meeting this week but also additional numbers can be added during the week leading up to September 12.

Also, A REMINDER FROM ATTENDANCE OFFICER TREVOR TO INFORM HIM AS SOONAS POSSIBLE OF YOUR NON-ATTENDANCE AT ROTARY WOULD BE GREATLY APPRECIATED.HIS CONTACT DETAILS ARE
