PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Last Thursday was a meeting with a difference. For a start we had a change of venue with the meeting at the Colonial Motor Inn which offered a larger meeting space enabling a more interactive session. After a hearty meal members and guests were enticed into song by our guest speaker Tara Flinn who runs a business as a singing coach. Tara's business Macapella Singers works with groups of mums and young children not only teaching singing but also using the sessions to encourage socializing and support amongst the parents. This was a very relaxed and enjoyable meeting which involved everyone singing and trying to stay in tune. As President, I sat next to professional singer Merlyn and following her lead so I didn't miss a beat. Tara has an emerging business which needs support from us by spreading the word and helping her build her clientele in Bendigo.

Two Lucky Lotto draws were held after the meeting and the winners were Anne Peace and Peter Simmons. Anne and Peter please catch up with me at our next meeting for your prizes.

There is no meeting next Thursday night as we have a club function on Sunday with the Marina Prior/Welsh Choir concert. We are back at the Foundry on the 26th September.

President Glenn Madden
