PRESIDENTS REPORT

The new Rotary Year of 2020/2021 has begun with a difference and I trust all the participants enjoyed their handover dinner parties/ gatherings and the proceedings. I wish to thank my resident IT expert my daughter Kara who really helped Glenn and I do it all in style, as it were. It was also great to be able to share the event with others, be it on a small scale. Thank you to my wife Rae for all her assistance including a great dinner event we shared with Glenn, Rose and Emily.

I wish to thank all club members for their positive comments on the event and secretary Tony for his organisation and ordering of all the essential gear, banners, running sheets and the like.

The Annual Report is a great publication and I commend its contents to all members. Thanks are due to Tony and his son David who were able to produce a great record of the past Rotary year. In particular the format and so many photos add to the whole report.

We have our first meeting of the new board last night, yes, starting right away! We hope to confirm what our meetings will be for the next few months and how that will all operate on Zoom.

The Christmas Trailer Raffle committee has had several meetings already and all is proceeding according to the plan of continuing this Bendigo tradition later on in the year.

Have a great week

Yours in Rotary

PAUL GIBBONS.

Such a formal affair – The Changeover Dinner Party

Many mini gatherings were held and shared together on Zoom to see Outgoing President, Glenn, hand over the reins to our Incoming President Paul.

President Paul was excited to announce the Max Ellis Award was given to George Ellis for his outstanding efforts in Community Service, particularly for his organisational skills in making the barbecues work!

Another worthy recipient, this time for a Paul Harris, Sapphire Award was Graham Neivandt. His tireless efforts and quiet achievements in regards to Camp Getaway, have been rewarded and appreciated by the Rotary Club of Bendigo South
