President's Report

Fisherman's Friends: One and All was a most enjoyable movie with a good message about men's mental health along with some great Cornish folk songs and sea shanties. We were supporting the Bendigo Maubisse Friendship group. They had their usual excellent raffle and a pretty full house.

There are four spots left in the Dumpling Making session at Camp Getaway. Don't miss out!

BBQs are happening in a steady stream, Tony and Paul went to Rochester for a gardening working-bee and other members assisted with the parking for the Lost Trades Fair, helping out RC Bendigo and earning some funds for Projects.

After our Meeting when Andrew Coldwell spoke about the Imagination Library, I have signed up my Karen mentee's little brother for the program. If you know any youngsters 0-4 who are in language deprived families, it's an easy task to get them enrolled.

Enjoy the burst of a late Summer while it lasts.
