President's Report

On May 4 we welcomed five of our Secondary School Scholarship recipients along with their families and teachers. The fifth had succumbed to Covid. We also welcomed Honorary member Tom Glazebrook AM after whom the Girton Scholarship is named.

We heard from the students about their current studies and aspirations and the finishing touch was 2022 BSSC Musician of the Year, Sonnie Hannaford, singing the Edith Piaf song 'La vie en rose'.

Talking of Scholarships, Lindsay Jolley reported that with the combination of the Film Night and Tibetan Dumpling afternoon the Club has raised sufficient funds to provide four Scholarships for students in Nepal. The Club also continues to support students via the Maubisse Friendship group. We will also be hearing from Tertiary Scholarship recipients in the near future.

Thanks to the untiring efforts of Ian Ellis, all the Rotary Christmas cakes have been sold, making a $600 profit for the Club. Bravo Ian!

BBQs are approaching – watch out for emails from George with details!
