President's Report

This my final President's Report and the final one for Zoe to put together.

At our last Meeting which was the 'Year in Review' I read my report for the Club's Annual Report and Paul Gibbons showed us the slides he has collated for the Changeover. We also had brief presentations from those Members present who had attended the International Convention.

It has been a productive year for our Club with a great variety of activities, interesting guest speakers and events. I wish to thanks all Members for making my second Presidential year most enjoyable. The first one was also enjoyable but different! I appreciate your friendship and support. Since moving to Bendigo ten years ago Rotary has helped me learn so much about our fair city and semi-rural life in general. I look forward to more to come!!!

The Changeover will be a great event as the Shamrock dusts off the cobwebs to host our dinner. See you there!
