PRESIDENTS REPORT.

I hope everyone had an enjoyable and safe Easter break. The Easter period has been huge for Bendigo with the Bendigo Easter Festival in full swing under perfect weather conditions. The club maintained a continuous BBQ for the full three-day period with members providing the labour on Good Friday and Easter Sunday and Women of Note providing the labour on Easter Saturday. A special thank you to members, friends and relatives who assisted with this demanding project by providing a quality BBQ service, second to none. The crowds were huge and the line of people seeking product was continuous. The festival was expected to attract 100,000 people over the weekend with Dai Gum Loong making its first appearance. Dai Gum Loong has now taken over the title of the longest dragon of its kind in the world at 120 metres long.

THE NEXT MEETING IS OUR ANZAC MEETING AND IS ON WEDNESDAY 24th APRIL AT THE FOUNDRY HOTEL. THERE IS NO MEETING ON ANZAC DAY. PLEASE FORWARD APOLOGIES TO ME BY 12 NOON WEDNESDAY TO ENABLE NUMBERS TO BE FINALISED.

The guest speaker for our Anzac meeting is Glenn Ludeman. Ian Ellis on behalf of the club will be laying a wreath on Thursday morning at the Anzac March and service.

At the conclusion of the meeting there will be an opportunity for club fellowship to mark Anzac Day.

See you on Wednesday night.

Yours in Rotary
Rod Spitty
