PRESIDENTS REPORT.

Congratulations to TAFE Scholarship recipient Jacob Fitzpatrick on his presentation to the club last Thursday. Jacob did a great presentation describing his course and his aspirations and fielded a great range of questions from members. Also, congratulations to member Bernie Young on his organisation and execution of this inaugural scholarship with TAFE.

Ron Devereaux also provided an extremely interesting talk on manufacturing and driving sports cars in his youth with regular racing meetings at Fisherman's Bend. He spoke about the design and manufacturing of sports car bodies and engines and how this became his passion over several decades. The member talks are appreciated as reflected by the interesting range of questions that followed. Congratulations to Ron on his presentation.

Congratulations to new member Philip Lethbridge on his induction to the Rotary Club of Bendigo South. With respect to club membership in 19/20 I will be forwarding an email to all members asking for members to advise if they will NOT be continuing their membership in 19/20. This was discussed by the board at the last meeting as it is important to have our numbers in place to Rotary International for payment of correct of fees.

At this stage 17 members and partners will be attending the Sutton Grange winery social day on Sunday 23rd June. I have booked for 20. Please advise me if any other members would like to attend.

THE NEXT MEETING WILL BE A VOCATIONAL VISIT to the new pool at Kangaroo Flat - Gurri Wanyarra Well Being Centre. Members are requested to assemble in the foyer at 6pm for 6.30 start (sharp) where Rod Simms the pool Manager COBB will be presenting to the club and providing an inspection tour of the facility. Members are welcome to have a swim after the inspection if desired as the facility is open until 9pm.

The club will be providing a range of Foundry pizza and drinks from 6.30 onwards in the Multi-Function room at the centre. The cost per head will be $20.

Changeover RSVP's are also due this week to Greg Noonan with payments on line as per invitation.

See you this Thursday at the pool.

Regards ROD SPITTY
